Library News

Community Survey Update – Thank you to all who completed and submitted the community survey. Copies of the survey are still available at the Information Desk, through the library website (kraemerlibrary.org), and by mail: call the library to request a copy (546-4201). The survey should take only 5-10 minutes to complete. Responses are anonymous and will not be tracked. Survey feedback will play an important role in the library's future strategic planning process as the Board reviews current and possible future services to provide the best possible library for the community.

Attention Seniors – The second Senior Lunch and Movie Social is scheduled for Thursday, October 25 at 11:30. Contact the library to reserve your space. Also, don't forget to return leftover containers from the September 20 social. This event is partially supported by the Friends of the Kraemer Library & Community Center.

Library Landscaping - We are planning changes to the library's landscape in the upcoming months and are offering selected perennials to library patrons on a self-serve basis. Bring your own container and shovel, and check in at the Information Desk before digging. Donations will be accepted.

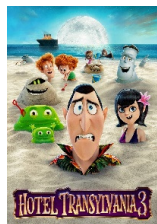

On Exhibit – (in the library alcove) – Literary Ladies – hand-made dolls by local artists Janice Von Stein, Jill Miliuhas, Paula Washow, and Susan Turner Thering. The dolls represent particular books. In addition, Friends of the Library membership information and merchandise is on display in the other half of the alcove cases.

Friends of the Library News

By Emily Benz

The Friends of the Library is happy to offer our annual Pies, Pages, Puzzles, and Pottery event on October 19 and 20. Please come to purchase pies and pick up puzzles, gently-used books (for a freewill donation), or purchase pottery from our friends at Wilson Creek Pottery. New this year, on Friday, please gather in the foyer of the library with us to enjoy a single slice of pie and a cup of coffee for purchase. The full sale will run Friday 9 am-5 pm and Saturday 9 am-noon in the Community Room.

In conjunction with the sale, we are hosting our second Pie Making class on Thursday, October 18 from 6-8 pm at Honey Creek Market. The esteemed baker and co-owner of Enos Farms, Erin Crooks Lynch, will teach us to make a galette using local, seasonal, and delicious ingredients. Look for these unique desserts on the sale tables on Friday and Saturday as well. To register for the class, please email me at embenz@gmail.com. Space is limited!

The Friends of the Library supports year-round programming for all ages and plays an integral part in the ongoing updates at the library. It is through your generous support of our sale and that of our members that we are able to contribute to summer children's programs, the senior movie lunch held monthly from September through May, transportation for school visits, and to provide support for overall library operations. Please consider joining us or renewing your membership and become a part of what sustains the wonderful work of our library. Pick up a membership brochure in the library alcove area to learn more about the Friends. We look forward to seeing you soon for pie and more!
