The Light in Summer*, by Mary McNear / published 2017 / 358 pages

This book is a light, enjoyable summer read. Billie Harper is a single mother living in Butternut Lake with her 13 year old son, Luke. She is the local librarian and especially loves Jane Austin’s novels. Luke’s father disappeared before he was born and now that his beloved grandfather has passed, he’s acting out, hanging with the wrong crowd, getting into trouble. In walks Cal Cooper, smart, handsome, and a successful architect from Seattle who’s summerved in Butternut Lake as a kid. With Cal in her life, maybe things will turn around.
