January Library Activities

The Senior Movie-and Lunch Returns! – The Senior Movie & Lunch is scheduled for Thursday, January 20 at 11:30 am. Either stop in the library or call at 608-546-4201 by Friday January 14 to reserve your spot. There will be no Senior Movie / Lunch in February

Join us for the movie All Mine to Give. In this fact-based drama set in the 1850s, the Eunsons move from Scotland to the American Midwest, where they live happily and run a successful business -- until the untimely deaths of both the father and the mother of the family. Now orphaned, the six Eunson kids must fend for themselves. Robbie, the oldest, does his best to care for his siblings while he searches for foster parents kind enough to accept such a large family into their home.

Youth Activities – The children’s story hour will resume on January 11. For more information, contact the library at 608-546-4201 or by email at askus@kraemerlibrary.org.

Plain Page Turners – The group will meet on Tuesday, January 18 at 7 pm to discuss This Tender Land by William Kent Krueger. The group will not meet in February and March.

Monthly Book Exhibit– The January book exhibit focus is on starting the new year on a positive note. Books on organizing, exercise, and diet are on display near the Information Desk.

Book News

Brief Review: Three Sisters / Heather Morris / 388 pages. This is the third novel by Heather Morris in her series set in Auschwitz-Birkenau during World War II. Readers who liked The Tattooist of Auschwitz and Cilka's Journey will enjoy this book just as much. Here is the publisher's summary of the novel:

When they are little girls, Cibi, Magda, and Livia make a promise to their father – that they will stay together, no matter what. Years later, at just 15, Livia is ordered to Auschwitz by the Nazis. Cibi, only 19 herself, remembers their promise and follows Livia, determined to protect her sister or die with her. Magda, age 17, escapes capture for a time, but eventually she too is transported to the death camp. Reunited, the three sisters make another promise that they will live. Their fight for survival takes them from the hell of Auschwitz-Birkenau to a death march across war-torn Europe and eventually home to Slovakia, now under iron Communist rule. Determined to begin again, they embark on a voyage of renewal to the new Jewish homeland, Israel. Rich in vivid detail and beautifully told, Three Sisters will break your heart but leave you amazed and uplifted by the courage and fierce love of three sisters whose promise to one another kept them alive. Two of the sisters are in Israel today, surrounded by family and friends. They chose Heather Morris to reimagine their story in this astonishing new novel, Three Sisters.
